1.1 Who is this guide for?

1.2 About TAC

Transportation Association of Canada

1.1

Who is this guide for?

- Anyone who is curious about TAC, or who is interested in volunteering on a council or committee
- Volunteers who want a “refresher” on council & committee operations, or who have specific questions

Note: This guide does not apply to project steering committees that guide TAC’s pooled-fund projects (see more information here)

About TAC

- We are a not-for-profit technical association focusing on road/highway infrastructure & urban transportation.
- We serve as a neutral forum for sharing ideas & information, building knowledge & pooling resources.
- We have about 500 member organizations including governments, businesses & academic institutions.
- We have about 800 individual volunteers from member organizations on TAC councils & committees.
- We employ about 15 staff in TAC's Secretariat, located in Ottawa.

Transportation Association of Canada

2.2

What is their role?

(2/3)

TAC council activities

- Guide technical work in one of six focus areas
- Exchange knowledge & organizational updates
- Identify emerging issues
- Coordinate & oversee committees
- Approve proposed project descriptions
- Approve project deliverables before publication
- Approve TAC award recipients

What is their role?

(3/3)

TAC committee activities

- Exchange knowledge & organizational updates
- Identify emerging issues
- Report to councils on activities & outcomes
- Plan & deliver TAC conference sessions
- Create subcommittees or working groups to address key issues
- Propose projects to develop guidelines, syntheses of practice, or research reports
- Conduct volunteer projects

Transportation Association of Canada

2.3

When do they meet?

Spring Technical Meetings. Councils & committees hold online meetings each April.

Fall Technical Meetings. Councils & committees hold in-person meetings each fall, just before the TAC Conference & Exhibition.

- Dates and agendas for Spring/Fall Technical Meetings are posted in advance on TAC’s website.
- Many TAC volunteer groups also hold online meetings at other times, to conduct business and exchange information (e.g. “lunch & learns”).

Online meetings are held on weekdays in the window from 11:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. (Eastern time), using Zoom or Teams

2.4

What happens in meetings?

1 to 8 hours long

10 to 100 participants

Observers from TAC member organizations are welcome

Members discuss project deliverables, conference sessions & awards

Members offer updates on their organizations' activities & emerging issues

Presentations are made by experts, project consultants & other volunteers

Transportation Association of Canada

2.5

Who is in charge?

Council Executives include a Chair & Vice-Chair (elected by council members for two-year terms), the Chair of each committee overseen by the council, and a representative of TAC's Board of Directors.

- The Chair sits on the Chief Engineers Panel & reports to the Board of Directors each fall.

Committee Executives include a Chair, Vice-Chair & Secretary (elected by committee members for two-year terms).

- The Chair sits on the Council Executive & reports to the Council at each meeting.

2.6

How do volunteers share information?

- Email & online meetings allow council & committee Executives to communicate with members, with support from TAC staff.
- In-person meetings offer a chance to network, meet in small groups, and build relationships.
- TAC's SharePoint site enables collaborative document development & stores information on meetings & projects.

3 Becoming a TAC volunteer

3.1 Am I eligible to volunteer?

3.2 What's in it for me?

3.3 What's expected of me?

3.4 How do I volunteer?

Am I eligible to volunteer?

Yes, if you are:

- Willing to contribute to the activities of a TAC council or committee

And either:

- An employee of a TAC member organization or
- An individual TAC member (full-time student, retiree, person in job transition)

There are no age or experience restrictions

Young professionals are welcome

We encourage diversity in individuals & organizations

Transportation Association of Canada

3.2

What's in it for me?

Connections. Meet peers, make friends & create long-lasting professional networks.

Knowledge. Learn about shared challenges, emerging practices & who's doing what.

Leadership skills. Organize a conference session, lead a project, or serve on a council or committee Executive.

Satisfaction. Give back to a vibrant industry, contribute to best practices & support other practitioners.

Transportation Association of Canada

3.3

What's expected of me?

Attend. Council & committee members are expected to attend at least one in-person or online meeting each year.

Contribute. Prepare, review, share, discuss, vote, collaborate, create, celebrate.

Declare any conflicts of interest. Avoid commercial promotion, support transparency & equity.

There is no cost to attend TAC council or committee meetings

Transportation Association of Canada

3.4

How do I volunteer?

Just ask! Contact TAC staff by email or phone to be added to a roster.

Want to see more before you commit? Employees of TAC member organizations are welcome to join in-person or online meetings as observers.

Don't limit yourself. Many volunteers join more than one council or committee, and they can serve as valuable liaisons between groups.

There is no term limit for TAC volunteers –
and some contribute for decades
